

DMB Consultancy is committed to respecting and protecting your privacy. We've structured our web site so that, in general, you can visit us on the Web without identifying yourself or revealing any personal information.

Once you choose to provide us personally identifiable information (any information by which you can be identified), you can be assured that it will only be used to support your customer relationship with us.

Awareness

DMB Consultancy provides this Online Privacy Statement to make you aware of our privacy policy, practices and of the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used.

What information we collect

On portions of our web site, you can order certain products or services, make requests, and register to receive materials. The types of personal information collected at these pages are name and contact information.

How we use it

DMB Consultancy uses your information to better understand your needs and provide you with better service. Specifically, we use your information to communicate back to you, to update you on service and benefits, and to personalise our web site for you.

Who we share it with

DMB Consultancy will not sell, rent, or lease your personally identifiable information to others. We may give information about you to our employees and agents to deal with any accounts, products and services we provide to you, on the understanding that they will keep your information confidential.

Data Protection

By law you are entitled to a copy of any personal data we hold (as defined by local legislation). You can also ask us to correct any inaccurate data we hold about you. If you want to see this information, you must ask us in writing and pay a fee.
